If you had the opportunity to join an established veterinary hospital and put your own stamp on it, would you jump at the opportunity? What would practicing a gold standard of medicine look like to you? What equipment would you have in-house? What type of relationships would you have with clients and patients?

Snake River Veterinary Hospital has been serving the greater Jerome, Idaho community for over 30 years. In 2021, Snake River Veterinary Hospital joined Alpine Animal Hospital, an independently-owned hospital group in Idaho. Snake River is looking for either 1-2 Small Animal or Mixed Animal Associate Veterinarians to join our team. Candidates with an interest in partnership are encouraged to apply. New graduates are welcomed and will receive mentorship, designed to meet their needs, from Dr. Tillquist.

“One of the things that makes this hospital special is our desire to see each individual working in a setting that allows them to be passionate and fulfilled. Share with us your hopes, desires, and ideal working situation and we will do our best to build that for you.”

- Greg Armstrong, Hospital Administrator
